ANNOUNCEMENT ON TRAINING PLAN FOR
CHANGING THE APPLICATION OF QUALITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM
UPON ISO 9001:2008 STANDARD FOR CLIENTS OF DAS-UK IN VIETNAM

Respectfully addressed to: All clients,

On behalf of DAS-United Kingdom Certification Body in Vietnam, we respect and highly appreciate your management board care of maintaining the application and improvement for your QMS.

Dear all clients,

International Organization of Standardization officially announced ISO 9001:2008 standard replacing for ISO 9001:2000 standard on 15th November 2008. This is the latest version on Quality management system being used in 175 countries and territories all over the world. Results of this fourth review for the original version issued in 1987 support the Quality management system of enterprises in enhancing control to improve their product quality and client satisfaction competence.

According to our announcement on application changing requirements into ISO 9001:2008 standard in January 2009 and to ensure the applicability due to practical conditions at enterprises as well as your internal auditor competence, we continuously organize basic training courses for DAS' clients as following:

The certificates will be awarded to attendees who are fully present within 01 above training courses and pass the final exam.

II. ATTENDEE SUGGESTIONS

In order to ensure the quality of each training course and enable the applicability into the practical conditions of each company, we wish that top management will choose executives or staff taking part in the courses who meet following requirements:

- Each company should allow at least 02 members to take part in general awareness and application training course of QMS changing to ISO 9001:2008 so that they have enough conditions to discuss on how to make an ISO 9001:2008 application changing plan basing on their practical conditions.
- Attendees allowed to follow the courses should be ones who takes/took part in applying QMS upon ISO 9001:2000 in the company. Besides, there should be at least 01 attendee who is the member of ISO management board or ISO secretary to enable the application and implementation of the system effectively.
- Each company should allow at least 01 experienced internal auditor to follow the courses.
- All attendees of each company should be fully present in 01 training course (within 02 days), otherwise there should be at least 01 attendee at internal audit training course upon ISO 9001:2008.
